DataOnline announces Shell N Tube as new rep for India at 32nd AIIGMA

Bangkok, Thailand – February 4th, 2010. During the 32nd annual AIIGMA meeting in Bangkok, Thailand, Feb 2nd-4th 2010, DataOnline announced the signing of an agreement with Shell N Tube Pvt. Ltd. (www.Shell-N-Tube.com) to be their representative in India.

AIIGMA, the All India Industrial Gas Manufacturers Association, held its first meeting outside of India in support of a trade agreement between India and Thailand. Over 300 delegates were in attendance representing both industrial gas manufacturers and equipment and service suppliers. Robert Barnacle, DataOnline President, presented a paper on “Telemetry, the remote monitoring of fixed and mobile assets in the industrial gas industry”. DataOnline were invited by their new representative to attend the conference, sharing a booth with them in the exhibition hall.

Louie Lim, DataOnline’s Asia Regional Office manager, commented “The conference has been extremely well attended and there has been great interest in DataOnline’s products and services. Telemetry is not widely used in India and this is a great opportunity for us to introduce our technology and help the local Industrial Gas companies operate their supply chain more efficiently.”

Mr. Munjal Mehta, Shell-N-Tube Director of Sales, commented “As representatives to Chart in India, we had been introduced to DataOnline during the Middle East GasWorld conference. With our experience, complimentary products and customer base in India it was an easy decision for both parties to form this relationship. We look forward to promoting & supporting DataOnline’s products and services in India.”
